

Innovation Workforce

Grow your business by thinking differently

Geminus
training

Introduction

Most employees only use 20% of their knowledge, experience and creativity in the workplace.

When you allow your people to be creative, they become happier and more committed.

When they're happy and committed, they're more productive, effective and valued.

When you achieve this, your organisation will continually improve itself, without extensive management intervention.

Your Benefits

- Improve people engagement, contribution and commitment.
- Optimise the effectiveness and efficiency within your teams.
- Turn problems into solutions and find new opportunities to improve and grow your business.
- Develop your business to grow by itself.

Your Journey

4 x 1/2 day sessions available as open or in-house courses:

Identifying Opportunities to Innovate

Developing Creative Ideas

Selecting the Best Ideas

Turning Ideas into Projects

Courses suitable for up to 20 people per group.
